

KPCP Members' Forum

KPCP partners are representatives of groups, agencies and individuals who play a vital role in bringing people together and making the most of the resources available to Kimberworth Park. By working as a team, we can support our community and ensure local needs are met in the best way possible.